

Focus on the Future: Leading for South Carolina

South Carolina Association of Colleges & Employers 2004 Annual Conference

The Westin Poinsett ~ Greenville, SC ~ May 12 - 14

Are You Ready?

Are you ready to see the future of South Carolina?

Are you ready to help shape that future?

Are you ready for professional networking opportunities?

Are you ready to 'take it to the street'?

Please mark your calendar and register now for the SCACE 2004 Annual Conference at the historic Westin Poinsett,
Main Street, in Greenville, May 12-14!

The conference theme, Focus on the Future: Leading for South Carolina, will be reflected in the conference sessions and activities which are designed to benefit you personally and professionally.

From the opening keynote presentation on the future of South Carolina, through sessions on leadership skills, mastering media relations, building corporate alliances, and developing your professional presence, to a variety of business and professional networking opportunities that will have you 'taking it to the street' to the sound of live music, this conference is designed for you!

Join other collegiate and corporate professionals for an enriching and enjoyable conference, as you prepare to focus on the future, and lead for yourself, for your organization, and for South Carolina!

Please see the next pages for:
Conference Agenda
Hotel Information
Registration Form