SCACE 2004 Annual Conference Hotel Information

The Westin Poinsett ~ Greenville, SC ~ May 12 - 14

Just minutes from the city's performing arts center, West End Market and the Bi-Lo arena, The Westin Poinsett, Greenville, offers extensive business services, superb dining and an intimate lobby and bar.

W.L. Stoddard constructed this grand hotel in 1925. Today, the recently renovated Westin Poinsett combines 1920s style with 21st century conveniences. Guest rooms feature the Heavenly Bed, marble bathrooms with brass fixtures and dual-line telephones with data ports. The original decorative plate-work and handcrafted marble have been restored in the ornate lobby and grand ballrooms. All meeting rooms boast high-speed Internet access, as well as the latest lighting and sound systems.
